

Candidate For The Executive Committee : Entrada # 377Name of Centre/Network:

Teveo/Assitej Chile

Name of Candidate:

Bebe de Soares

Presentation of candidate:

Bebê de Soares, brazilian actress, choreographer, director is founder and artistic director of Amazonas Network, a network established in 2002 in Sao Paulo, Brazil, to encourage international exchanges in the area of theater for young audiences and dance. Amazonas Network operates in several countries, mainly in Brazil, and Chile. Besides devising projects, organize, co-productions, introducing partners with the aim of promoting quality theater for young audiences, she advises several international festivals in Brazil..

In 2013 started the Canal Curumim, a collaboration with the Instituto Cultural da Dinamaca, a platform for exchange of experiences, knowledge, ideas and lasting cultural relations, promoting artistic experience for children and youth audience. Bebê de Soares lives in Chile since 2011, where she expanded Amazonas Network to a touring/ management platform to selected companies mainly from Brazil, Chile at the IPAY conference 2016 and 2017,thus enlarging it's action to North America and Asia.

Since 2017 was invited to be the Coordinator of the International Program of FamFest, the largest festival for young audiences of South America that takes place every July on Santiago, Chile.

She is the international representant of Assitej Chile.