IV Baku International Theatre Conference

“THE WORLD THEATRE PROCESS IN XXI CENTURY”

The main theme of this year’s conference:

“Multiculturalism and theatre.”

We have the honor to invite you to the IV Baku International Theatre Conference (BITC) which will be held in the city of Baku, Azerbaijan, on 7-8 November 2016. BITC is organized by the Ministry of Culture and Tourism of Azerbaijan Republic within the frame of “The Azerbaijan State Program of Theatre Development in 2009-2019”.

The main purpose of BITC is to provide tribune to the prominent theatre performers and experts, directors and producers from all over the world to discuss the common challenges and opportunities facing contemporary theatre. You are welcome to take part in the conference as a speaker/presenter (10 min) or as an observer/listener. During BITC various master classes, workshops and trainings will be held by international experts on 6 and 9 of November.

You are kindly requested to send us:

- your brief CV,
- photo for the conference book,
- report in full (not more than 1000 words) or theses.

The working languages are English, Russian and Azerbaijani. The deadline for applications is on June 1, 2016. All presentations will be published in the Conference Book in three languages.

The Ministry of Culture and Tourism of Azerbaijan Republic will provide accommodation, meals and intercity transport for the three nights of 6-8 November (four days).

Please send all documentation to Mr. Shaig Safarov, Executive Secretary of BITC Organizing Committee:
